THINGS TO CONSIDER BEFORE YOUR SESSION;

WHAT TO WEAR:

I suggest you keep to a neutral palette. Simple and neutral colours and tones; textures such as knits and linen always look great too.

Whites, creams, greys, blushes and other light tones that complement baby's skin are a great option.

I have a beige jumper with 'One' embroidered on for first birthday sessions that you are welcome to use.

If you would like a few family photos within your session then it's important to plan what Mum, Dad and any siblings are wearing for the shoot.

I suggest you keep to a neutral palette as well, so that you compliment your baby and the focus is on them.

Soft knits add texture. Small patterns can look beautiful.

Ultimately, make sure you are comfortable. Feel free to message me if you want some help deciding.

Remove watches, and Mum's remember your hands and nails will be in photos, so make sure you've removed old polish and had a tidy!

SESSION TIME:

Make sure to plan your session time for when your little one is fed and well rested.

Most of my sessions take place around 10am, but please be sure to have a chat with me about your little one's routine.
